READ : Proverbs 16:18 and Philippians 2:3

OBSERVE : What are some key observations from this text? (i.e. words, tone etc...)

- CONTEXT :
- How do these verses compliment each other?
 - Is the warning of the Proverb just how life works or is it God's punishment?
 - How might we even do good things out of selfish ambition?
 - Why do you think God cares about our motives?
 - Does humility lead you to count other better than yourself or is the other way around?
 - What are some practical steps to help us consider others better than ourselves?

- Pastor Tyler said that people rarely hurt our feelings, they usually just injure our ego.
 1. Where is your ego the most sensitive?
 1. What does teach you about how you need to trust God more for your value?
- “Humility is not thinking less of yourself, it’s thinking about yourself less”
 2. What does this quote make you think about your thought life?
- Pastor Tyler taught that we feed our ego by comparison with others.
 3. Where are you most likely to compare yourself to others?
 4. What has been the negative impacts on your life from that?
- Paul taught in 1 Corinthians 4 that he didn’t care about other people’s verdict on him, nor did he care about his own. He only counts what God says about him.
 5. What do you need to be reminded of that God says about you?
 6. How do we get to where we value that over the opinions of others and ourselves?
